Data Protection Act 1998 – Reminder to Renew (Direct Debit)

Your register entry Z8840564 has an expiry date of 21 November 2010. Our records show that you have a current direct debit instruction.

Tiered notification fees have been introduced by the Ministry of Justice and are effective for all register entries that fall for renewal from 1 October 2009. A data controller now has to make an assessment to determine which tier it falls within, and hence the fee it is required to pay. Full guidance and information regarding the fee change can be found in the enclosed booklet.

Section 1 – Tier assessment

Q1. Does the data controller have fewer than 250 employees?

Yes The data controller is in Tier 1, now go to Section 2. No Go to Q2

Q2. Is the data controller a Public Authority as defined in the Data Protection Act 1998?

Yes The data controller is in Tier 2, now go to Section 2. No Go to Q3

Q3. Does the data controller have a turnover of £25.9M or more?

Yes The data controller is in Tier 2. No The data controller is in Tier 1.

(Please note there are some organisations that will always fall into Tier 1, you should refer to the enclosed booklet for full details.)

Section 2 – Fee details

Tier 1

The fee for renewal is £35.00 (VAT nil). We will collect the renewal fee of £35.00 on or immediately after 21 November 2010. You will receive confirmation of renewal in due course. You should complete the form overleaf and return it to us.

Tier 2

The fee for renewal is £500.00. FURTHER ACTION IS REQUIRED. You should complete the form overleaf and return it to us with your payment.

If you require any other amendments to be made to your register entry you should write to the Changes Team giving details or download our Changes Form from the Internet (www.ico.gov.uk).

If the data controller is no longer required to notify under the Data Protection Act 1998 you should complete the form overleaf.

 Changes in Data Controller Name / Company Registration Number

A change in name may be due to a change in the legal entity of the data controller. Examples are when a sole trader becomes a partnership or a partnership becomes a limited company. A change of company registration number would also constitute a change in the legal entity of the data controller.

It is not possible to transfer a register entry from one legal entity to another. In these cases the entry can not be renewed and you will need to telephone the notification help line (01625 545740) to start the process of making a new application to notify. Alternatively you can start the process by completing a notification form on-line at www.ico.gov.uk

Removal of Register Entry : Z8840564

Notification is not required because:-

1. The data controller ceased trading on _____ (Date)
2. Personal information is no longer being processed on an automated system such as a computer.
3. All of the data controller's processing is covered by one or more of the notification exemptions (for more information please visit www.ico.gov.uk). Please tick which exemption(s) you are relying on.

The data controller is only processing personal data for;

- their own accounts and records
- their own staff administration (including payroll)
- their own advertising, marketing & public relations
- personal, family or household affairs (including recreational purposes)

The data controller is a not-for-profit organisation and complies fully with the conditions of the not-for-profit exemption.

If you have ticked any of the boxes above you should state the reason(s) why personal information is no longer being processed OR why you are now relying on one or more of the notification exemptions.

Declaration

To the best of my knowledge and belief, the particulars given in this form and on any continuation sheets are correct and complete. I confirm that I am the Data Controller named overleaf or that I am authorised to act on behalf of the Data Controller.
