| 1 | A superb event, the location is perfect and Claire and Co are brilliant as they make it easy for us. The only negative point would be the exhibitor room is small now there are more exhibitors and a large proportion of delegates either go back into the main room for lunch/coffee or the outside area. In an ideal world you would want them in one room but appreciate that it isn't easier to find a central location with large enough rooms, especially as you can't legislate for how many delegates and exhibitors will materialise when organising 6 months+ in advance. Notwithstanding this, it is one of the best events we attend as a Bank. | May 16, 2012 2:31 AM |
| 2 | The time keeping was poor and therefore the breaks were cut back which is not ideal. I would suggest name badges with clips are better - Using the ones yesterday it often meant you could not see their names! | May 16, 2012 2:24 AM |
| 3 | Seating for lunch was not as good as before. Delegates returned to their seats, which meant it was difficult to mingle with them. The round tables used previously were much better for this purpose. | May 16, 2012 12:17 AM |
